A Little Flirting.

"A little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men." A little flirting now and then is also relished by the men. Judging from what I've seen of late, our girls are in the self same state. Be careful boys, be careful girls. Don't put your eyes, and shake your curls so careful of the words you drop. Or the old folks to this will put a stop. I've warned you now, take my advice. Before going too far just ponder twice. -CREEPERLINES.

A lady reader of THE COURIER who frequently entertains, send the following for publication and certainly when all points are considered, her views and grievances are well founded. But THE COURIER has often made remarks concerning the carelessness of sending notes of acceptance. Kind reader place yourself in the position of a hostess at a card party. Tables enough for sixteen are arranged and just enough guests to fill them have been invited. You are one of them and by coming late you detain the pleasure of the entire party, all of whom must await your arrival before commencing. Then again, and even worse, not coming at all and neglect sending regrets is even more unamenable. It takes but a moment to drop a card of regret and this gives the hostess ample time to get another person to play in your place. It is positively a breach of etiquette and a very severe one at that, not to send acceptances or regrets and a thing that no one should fail to attend to promptly as possible. This answers equally as well in the case of all other parties and social affairs to which invitations are issued. But here is the letter just as received:

Mr. Editor:—Will you kindly put this little remonstrance in a conspicuous place in THE COURIER. It is against the "Social People" of Lincoln and the manner in which they receive invitations to parties of all kinds and are not polite or wellbred enough either to send acceptances or regrets. It is outrageous the way some of the entertainers of Lincoln have been treated, and you can hear complaints from all sides. Last spring a prominent lady gave two large card parties and she curtly said to a friend that she had issued invitations and then had to go around and ask them if they were going to accept. On the first night when the party commenced at nine o'clock one of the couples had not yet arrived. The hostess telephoned and found that they were not "feeling very well and could not come," consequently she was compelled to ask two of her guests not to play. This is only one of the numerous cases that happen right along. If we could have a professor come to Lincoln and open a class on politeness and common decency instead of cooking schools, etc., I think it would be a positive boon to entertainers.

NE OF THEM.

On Wednesday evening last Lincoln Lodge Number 35, I. O. O. F. held a public installation of the officers elected for the ensuing quarter. It occurred at the lodge hall over Baker's clothing house. The affair was a success in every way and reflected great credit on those who were entrusted with its management. The following officers were installed: Emma J. Hodges, C. T.; Chas. T. Evans, V. T.; Hattie Hodges, Treas.; Edwin Sherwin, F. S.; Frank Keyser, M.; Jas. Fentman, D. M.; William J. Adamson, Sec.; Albine Lyman, Asst. Sec.; Alice E. Minnick, Chap.; Robt. June, guard; William E. Ellis, Sent.; Clarence E. Hodges, P. C. T. These were installed by Mr. S. G. Thomas with the beautiful and impressive ceremonies of the order. The installation was followed by a short but very interesting programme. The music was furnished by the South Lincoln band. A recitation was given by Miss Ella Jackson. The reading of the society paper, "The Electric Light" by its very modest and unassuming young editor, Mr. Chas. T. Evans, followed. After the programme the time was given up to social entertainment, playing new and interesting games. At 11:00 p. m. the gathering broke up and all went away feeling that the occasion was one long to be remembered.

One of the most enjoyable parties of the season was given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clyce at their home Twenty-eighth and Q streets last Thursday evening. Progressive high five was the principal amusement, the game being carried on until after midnight. Mr. W. H. Benton and Mrs. H. B. Sawyer won the prizes. A choice collation was served during the latter part of the evening. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames B. Humphrey, W. H. Benton, I. E. Johnson, H. B. Sawyer, C. F. Barras, J. Leister, E. L. Holyoke, Mrs. H. M. Brice, Mrs. Bobly, Misses Brice, Mary and Gail Malone, Sarah Riley and Misses White and Riley. The most noticeable features was the elegant bouquets which adorned the several rooms.

A pleasant party of friends were entertained Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Crandal at their residence corner C and Seventeenth streets. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wurgburg, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Allan, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Rudge, Mr. and Mrs. Will McArthur, Mr. and Mrs. George H. H. of Mexico; Mr. James Miller, Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Hoagland, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Green, Mr. and Miss Hattie Huntington of Chicago. High five was enjoyed the fore part of the evening. Mrs. C. H. Rudge, D. E. Green and H. V. Hoagland won the prizes. Refreshments were served, after which vocal and instrumental music and dancing were in order.

A number of the young friends of Miss Della Scofield very successfully surprised her on last Saturday evening. Progressive high five, tiddle-de-wink, dancing and dainty refreshments furnished the amusement for the evening. Those present were: Misses Toretta Kelley, Alfred, Teds Pound, Dunn, Hoover, Miss, Clara Smith, Fowler, Touline, Pound, Bryan, Gregory and Shepard, Messrs. Barkley, Elliott, Beardsley, Marsland, Willotta, Sawyer, Folsom, Hamer, Jones, Sheldon, Barber, Honeywell, Hoover and Pace.

J. H. Duncan was eighty-seven years old yesterday and in honor of the event a number of relatives and friends gave him a pleasant surprise at 1220 R street. Among the guests being two daughters from abroad, Mrs. J. F. Copelan of Atchison, Kas., and Mrs. J. H. Bradley of Marshalltown, Iowa. The evening was a delightful social success and one that the hall and hearty old gentleman fully appreciated. Mr. Duncan is the father of Mrs. Ken D. Binford.

The Tuesday Evening Club will be entertained Monday evening at The Lincoln by the "homeless" young men of the club. In addition to the regular literary programme which on this occasion will be devoted to Mrs. Browning, there will be a presentation of the well known comedy, "The Quiet Family." The dramatic personnel include Messrs. S. T. St. John, Will Clarke, John T. Dorgan, Dr. C. F. Ladd, Misses Olive Latta, Nellie White, Cora Hardy and Clara Walsh. This meeting will doubtless be one of the most enjoyable yet held.

A spider web party was given Tuesday evening by the Ballanooly club at the home of Miss Thiell, 1728 J street. The event was one of the most thoroughly enjoyable yet given by the club and some of the features were as unique as the name of the social aggregation. The prettiest feature of the evening was the spider web system of choosing partners. Zephyr strings were attached to the chandelier and a dance similar to that of a May pole party followed. The lady and gentleman having the same colored cords became partners at cards or in the dance or in whatever game followed. One of the most interesting features of the evening was the game of progressive high five. The royal prizes were won by Mr. T. Robinson and Miss Josephine Madden. The latter portion of the evening was devoted to dancing. Those present were Misses Madden, Lander, Archie, Mary Toell, Martin McGinnis, Blake, Messrs. Robinson, Taylor, John and Chas. Thiell, Small, Fisher, Honck and Decker.

The annual election of officers of the Union club occurred Monday evening and resulted as follows: H. D. Hathaway, president; W. M. McDonald, vice-president; W. W. W. Jones, secretary; C. E. Wait, treasurer. R. H. Oakley, Dr. Applegate, Dr. C. F. Ladd, M. L. Attkin, H. S. Freeman, O. R. Oakley and A. W. Field directors. The officers chose Dr. Applegate and Dr. Ladd as the house committee for the ensuing year. The annual report showed 137 members and the affairs of the club made a splendid financial showing. Mr. C. O. Whedon is the retiring president. The members of the club are discussing the advisability of building a splendid club house.

Mr. Frank Goddard, an elegant young gentleman from Boston and who possesses the rare faculty of making everybody his friend, was the guest of Mr. Fred Howe the past week. Mr. Goddard says that he never was more cordially entertained in his life than he was during his visit here and he left on Tuesday most agreeably impressed with western hospitality.

Miss Bertha Avery, 1804 P street, was at home to a few invited friends Wednesday evening. The party had a most enjoyable time at cards and other games. Those present were: Misses Clara Carmody, Effie Steen, Grace E. Perkins and Messrs. Ernest G. Yates, Irwin Winger, and Mr. Comstock.

The Lincoln Turn Verine gives its second annual masque ball at Bohanan's hall next Tuesday evening. It will be kept strictly respectable and none but persons of known repute will be admitted. Any respectable person may obtain tickets of the committee and at leading stores.

Friday night at the residence of W. F. Robinson, Twenty-eighth and V streets Mr. Joseph Lewis and Miss Ida Lanson of Barnston, were united in marriage by Rev. G. W. Isham. The happy couple left the next day for Barnston, where they will reside.

Ira Higby, principal clerk at the Murray hotel, Omaha, was a Lincoln visitor early in the week. He was accompanied by his wife and daughter, and came to the Capital City to join Mrs. Higby's mother here enroute from Red Cloud to Omaha.

A grove of the Mystic Circle, a lady degree in the Woodmen society, will be organized in Lincoln in about a week or ten days. It is expected that Antelope camp, the social camp of the order, in this city, will soon institute a grove.

Thomas Brown, the caterer, mourns the loss of his aged mother. Mrs. Brown was nearly sixty-five years old but her last days were always comforted by her devoted son. The funeral took place Thursday.

The next party of the Pleasant Hour club will be held at the Hotel Lincoln next Tuesday evening and the present indications are that it will be in every way as brilliant an affair as the last one.

Mr. J. A. Rooney, a most genial young gentleman with a host of friends in Omaha, has been appointed as stenographer to Gov. Boyd, vice Bert Betts, who has retired.

Miss Josie Wessel of Nebraska City, is visiting relatives in Lincoln and the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Max Kohn on H street.

Messrs. S. T. St. John, John T. Dorgan, Will Clarke, and Harry Freeman will go to Omaha this evening to attend the theatrical performance by the Jefferson-Florence-Drew combination.

Mr. Noah Hodges of Sandyville, Iowa, is making preparations to become a citizen of Gollgo View, where he will erect a palatial residence.

Miss Mary Miller, who has been the guest of Miss Anna Funke for a number of weeks, left last Saturday for her home in Chicago.

Mr. J. S. Hoagland of North Platte, was the guest of his brother, Deputy Sheriff Hoagland, the first of the week.

Mrs. E. C. House of Broken Bow, has been the guest this week of her sister, Mrs. A. R. Sanson of this city.

Mr. George Miner and Mr. L. C. Dals, both of Omaha, spent Sunday with friends in this city.

D. E. Thompson has been in Chicago and other eastern points during the past week.

Miss Maud Stobbs expects to leave for her home in Toronto next Wednesday.

W. F. Weaver has been enjoying a vacation in Denver the past few days.

Miss Naomi Weaver has been visiting in Atchison, Kansas, this week.

The Majority

Of so-called cough-cures do little more than impair the digestive functions and create bile. Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, on the contrary, while it cures the cough, does not interfere with the functions of either stomach or liver. No other medicine is so safe and efficacious in diseases of the throat and lungs. "Four years ago I took a severe cold, which was followed by a terrible cough. I was very sick, and confined to my bed about four months. I employed a physician most of the time, who finally said I was in consumption, and that he could not help me. One of my neighbors advised me to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I did so, and before I had finished taking the first bottle was able to sit up all the time, and to go out. By the time I had finished the bottle I was well, and have remained so ever since." - L. D. Bixby, Bartonville, Vt.
